In recognition of his thirty six years of loyal service to South School in the publication of the school paper and annual, we, the staff, are proud to dedicate the 1965 SIS BOOM to MR. LEO SCHMITZ,
instructor of printing and mechanical drawing.

SIS Boom Staffs

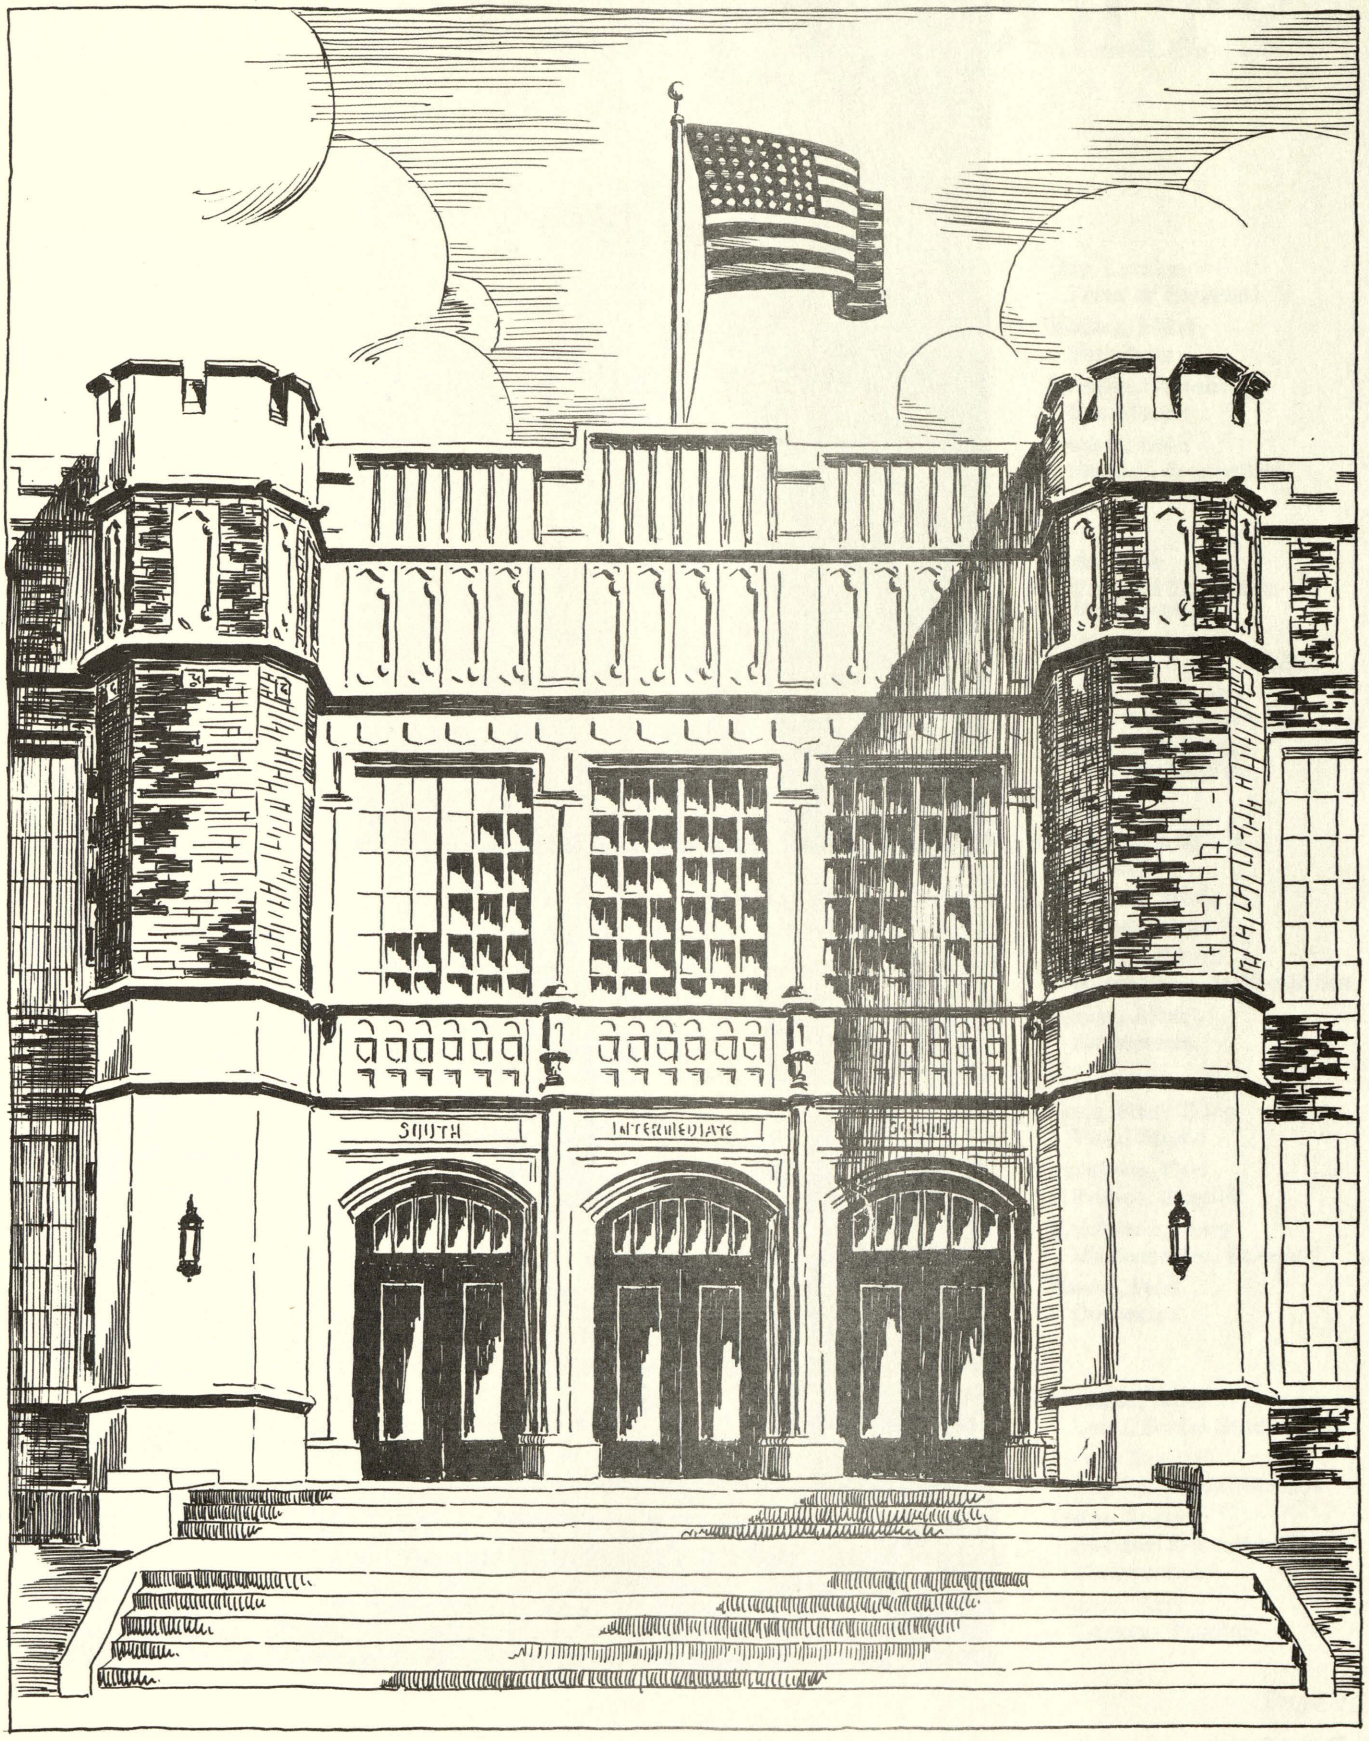
Assembling name lists, Joe Oeming, Alan Shackelford, Wuanita Elliott, and Sue Schroeder, are hard at work.

Ever watchful, Mrs. Becker, long-time student advisor, points out an error in the yearbook to Debbie Shields, John Schneller, Vince Lutskus, and Mary Hoffman.



SOUTH
INTERMEDIATE

Charles Dickens begins A Tale of Two Cities-- "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness."

The school year 1964-65 probably meant different things to different people. For most everyone no doubt, the year can be classified as good, worthwhile and valuable. For a very few it was practically wasted time, and brought no noticeable achievements. We get out of school life just about what we put into it. It is indeed gratifying to know that so many at South put so much into our school this year, and got so much in return.

Our congratulations to the staffs for this fine 1965 yearbook.

May all of you have a pleasant vacation. Goodbye and good luck to the 9A's as you continue your education elsewhere.

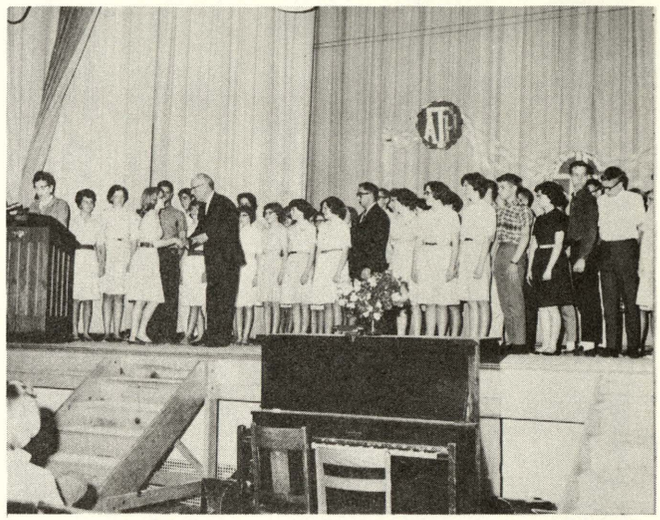
UNHERALDED HELPERS

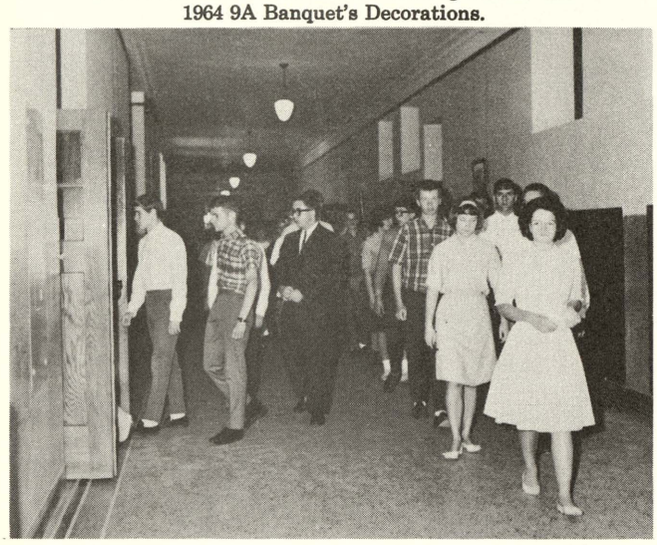
Grace Wirth and Margaret Colpean prepare lunch for South's cafeteria students.

South's custodial staff takes a break from its busy schedule.

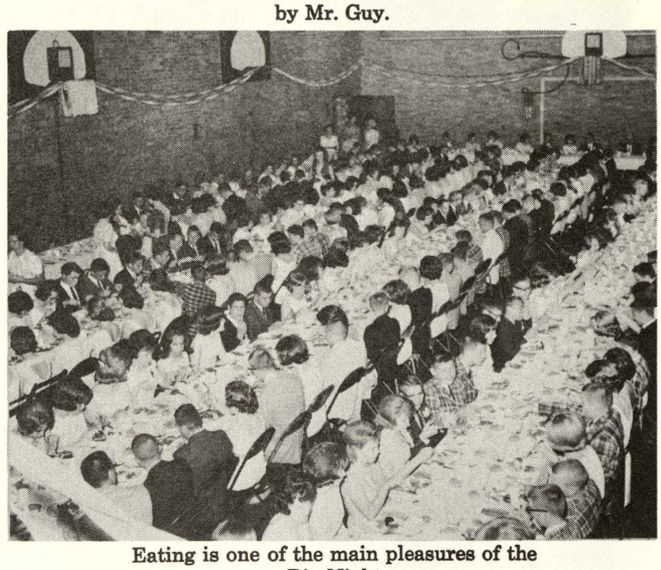
Beth Fleischman and Carl Armstrong admire the 1964 9A Banquet's Decorations.



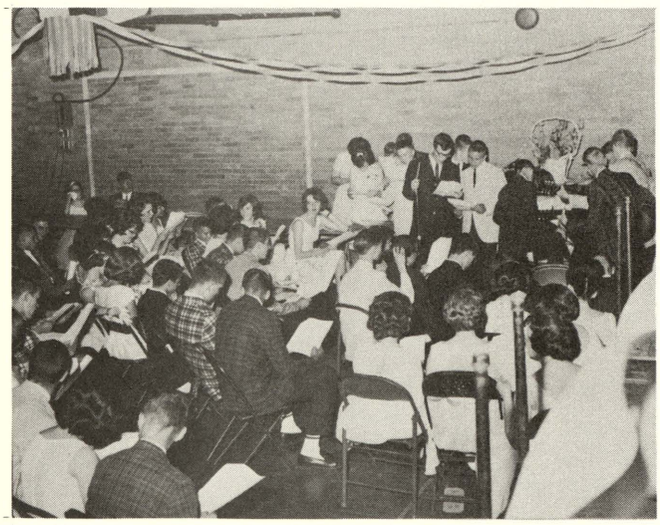
Gold Honor Pins are awarded to 9A students by Mr. Guy.



The last mile.



Eating is one of the main pleasures of the Big Night.



Group singing was enjoyed by all who attended the 9A Party.

HAIL THE "PHI BETA KAPPAS!"

The following people are potential Gold Honor Pin winners pending the release of the sixth Honor Roll:

Susan Arold, Maureen Boltz, Mary Boyse, Thomas Burdick, Linda Colindres, Gary Cook, Ann Cortopassi, Charleen Doty, Dee Dvorsek, Richard Dyer, Wuanita Elliot, Doris Fischer, Joda Fowler, Richard Giessel, Amy Hackstadt, Mary Hamather, Marjorie Hanes, Richard Hassberger, David Jahn, Mary Hoffman, Stephen Horvat, Patricia Kampfert, Brenda Krauchenko, Ronald Krenz, Kim Levinsohn, Steve Light, Vincent Lutskus, Donna Masterton, Kathleen McKenna, David McMullin, Richard Moeller, Marcia Morse, Chris Noble, Barbara Osborne, Martha Pincombe, Lisa Reed, Ron Rickard, Mary Schmidt, Linda Schneider, Ruth Schneider, Lee Simkins, Gretchen Smith, Kathy Stewart, John Weber, and Nancy Zittel.

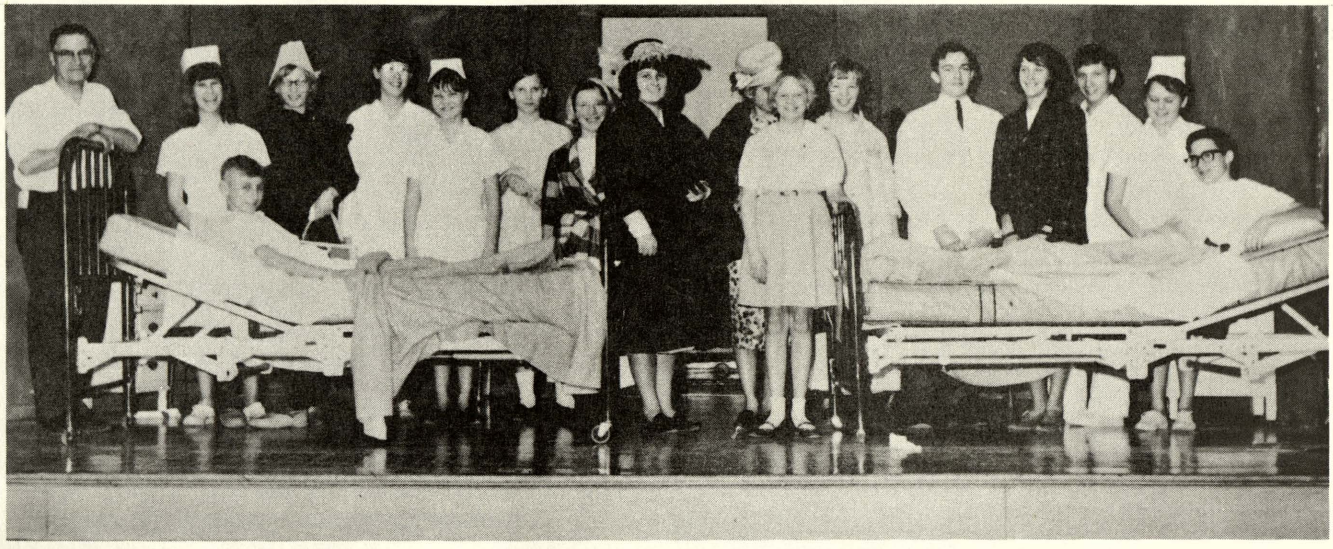
Rich Sedwick and Mary Duvall work with formulas in Mrs. Kaufman's math class.

Joan Glass, Phyllis Walch and Patty Rock leave the gym with full stomachs.

Roy Llamas and Mary Lou Clark demonstrate Base 6 in Mrs. Pawley's math class.

Terry Fitzgerald saws a board while Jim Sommers looks on.



The play cast stops the rehearsal for a picture.

"TAKE YOUR MEDICINE" GOES DOWN WELL

A hospital room served as the background, where 16 students presented their parts January 22nd in the play "Take Your Medicine," by Felicia Metcalf. It was directed by Mr. Eynon.

Laughter came easy during the three-act comedy when two eccentric patients caused utter confusion throughtout the entire hospital ward. Doctors and nurses ran helter skelter in order to keep up with the comical situation presented during the evening preformance.

Mr. Lyle Shumate, director of music, conducted South's junior band and provided various musical selections between the acts of the play.

SOUTH'S MUSICIANS

Shown working hard, the 7th grade band depicts a typical day.

1965 INSTRUMENTALISTS

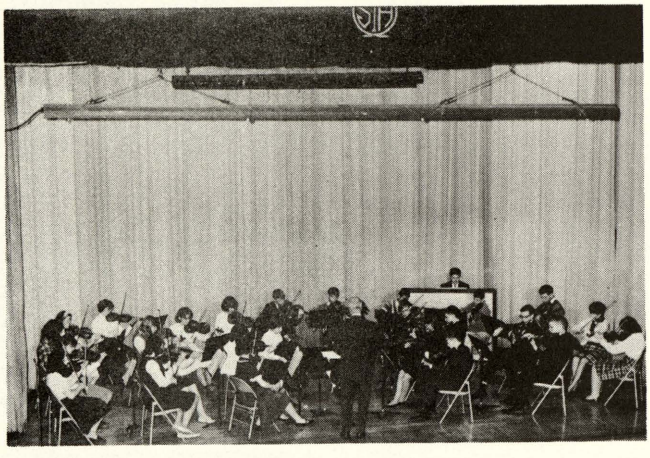
All through the year, South's students were entertained by our Junior and Senior Bands, and the Orchestra, directed by Mr. Shumate.

The Seniors opened the November political assembly, marched in the muddy streets on Armistice Day, played for the February P.T.A. and gave a music assembly in mid-April. In addition, they performed for the students of North School as part of the exchange program.

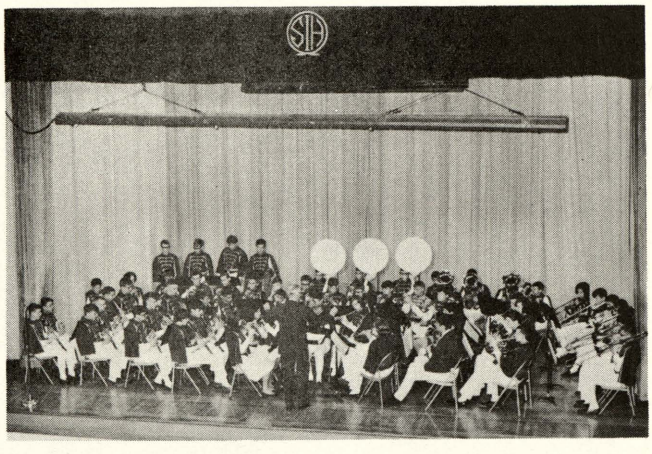
Entertained by the Junior Band was the audience of the school play in January. Those attending the October Parent Teachers meeting were delighted by South's fine orchestra, as were the students who heard it at Christmas, sending beautiful strains of yuletide music through-out the school.

Combining, all of the instrumental groups presented the Spring Concert on May 7. Delighted, the audience applauded the lively modern pieces including "Square Rondo" and South American numbers "Calypso Joint," and "La Compansita."

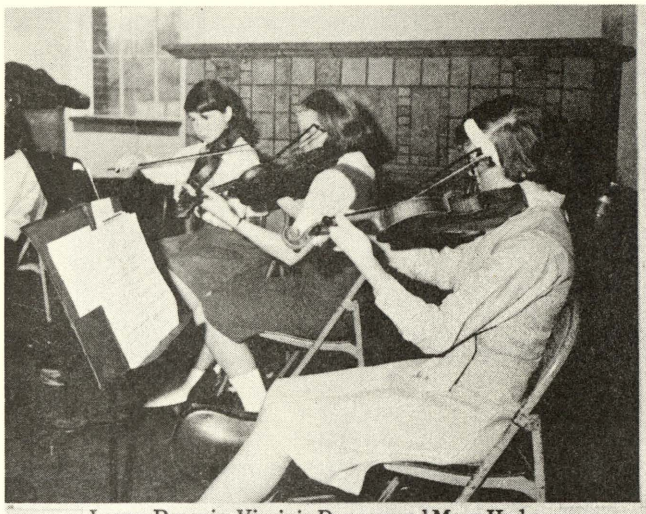
Rounding out the year, the annual Morley Scholarship to the world-famous music camp at Interlochen was won by violin player Nancy Carpenter. An extremely close second, Ron Richard's skill with a French horn made the judges' decision extremely difficult.



ORCHESTRA



SENIOR BAND



Leann Desonia, Virginia Duncan and Mary Hodges solemnly rehearse a difficult passage.

Mr. Shumate leads Frank Sigourney, Bob Hughes and Chris Noble through their paces.

Trumpet Mike McDonald and bass Dave Railling make an odd-looking duet.

South's secondary holds North for short gain

GRIDDERS SHOW SPIRIT

In the first full six game schedule of tackle football in Saginaw Junior High history, South's gridders fought back hard after a first game loss to Eddy to conclude the season in second place, with a 4-1-1 record.

September 18 was a sad day for South football fans as they watched the Eddy defense hold South on the one yard line at the final gun clinching a 6-0 victory.

In the second game the seniors managed a close win over North, 19 to 18, in a game which proved to be a turning point in the season.

On Webber's field, October 9, South's offense sparkled in a 27 to 0 rout.

The next game, which was the one that decided the championship, was a heartbreaking tie with Central. The seniors' only tally came with five seconds remaining in the first half on a 30 yard pass-run play from Gary Herzler to Dave McMullen.

In the final two games South beat Eddy 19 to 7 with Bob Hollingsworth punching over two touchdowns.

The seniors continued their late season winning streak beating North for the second time 6-0 in the final game of the season.

Seated (left to right) Marsha Meyer, Cathy Valdiserri, Jona Dijak, Marsha Braley, Betty Jo Simon, and Mary Hoffman.
Second Row: Wuanita Elliott, Jean Rabideau, Linda Colindres, Charlene Ledtke, Miss Vassaw, Donna Masterton, Linda Jackson, and Marge Turbin.
Third row: Barb Rulison, Sandy Kolleth, Penny Erskine, Marsha Dustin, Arija Piziks, Shelly Dankert, Mary Schmidt, and Debbie Jones.
Managers: Linda Schneider and Martha Pincombe.

VOLLEYBALLERS EXHIBIT PROWESS

This year the skillful knowledge of Miss Vassaw and the combined team effort brought the South girls a rank of second place. Though they didn't win the championship as in previous years the team was always a perfect symbol of sportsmanship and teamwork.

The first two games of the season were split by South and North. South's girls won two from Arthur Eddy and two from C. J. H. S.

The girl's second home game was waged against Webber, who left the floor with a twice defeated team. South's next game was against Arthur Eddy. The volleyballers won both games.

The spectators witnessed the most thrilling games of the season when South met her arch-rival, North. The Northern team won, 15-13 and 15-12.

The last home game of the season saw South earn a 15-4 victory from Central. The Southerners grabbed the second game 15-2.

South and Webber split the last two games of the season.

SENIORS FINISH SECOND

Displaying awesome power South's seniors rolled up a 7-3 record, good enough to tie for second place in the junior high basketball league.

Led by the front line men, David McMullin, Les Tyner, and Bob Fisher, South downed North three times 54-26, 54-28, and 60-22; Central 61-51, Webber 63-39, and 54-37, and Eddy 48-34. The title was decided however; when South suffered losses to Webber 44-33, Eddy 61-51, and Central 70-64, which was an overtime game.

South proved tough on their home floor where they were never defeated.

Second row: Coach John McMurry, Mark Champagne, John Schneller, Gary Gerrish, Steve Premo, Terry Hill, Bill Cox, Terry Hasse, Mr. Guy.
Third row: Manager, David Bird, Tom Rousseau, Tom Engel, Bob Muter, Mark Maidlow, Mike Maier, and Frank Sigourney.

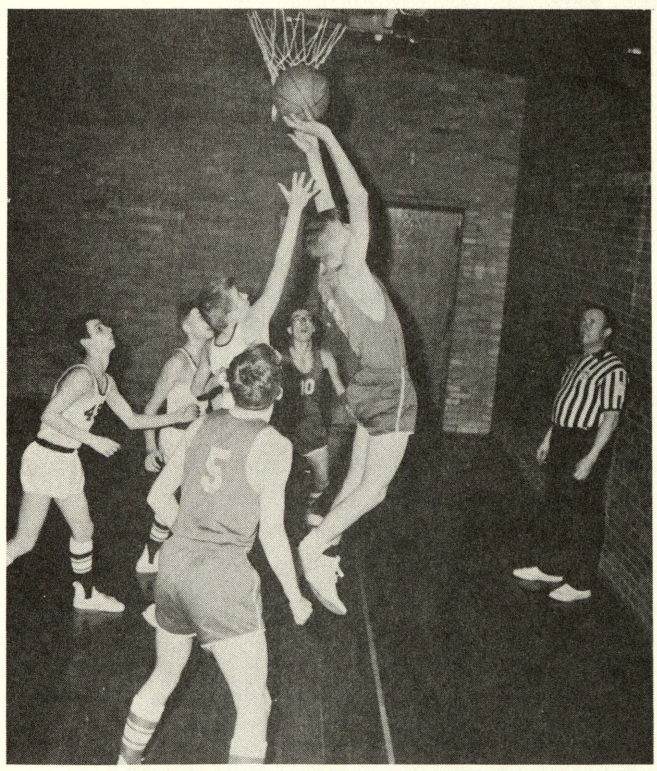
JUNIORS A SUCCESS

Despite a slow start, Coach John McMurray's rangy juniors compiled a 6-4 record, good for third place.

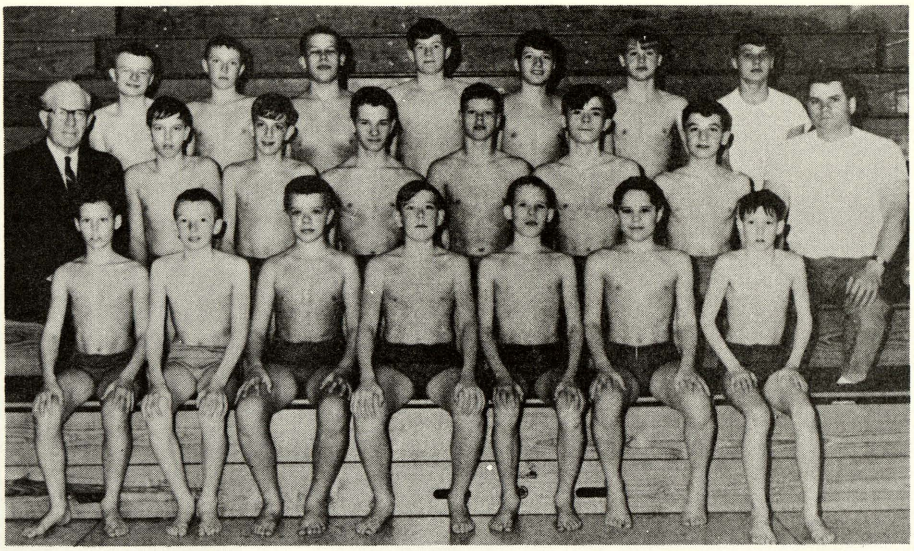
In their first contest with Webber, South was overwhelmed 53-29, but came back with a convinc. ing 45-32 victory over North. The juniors split their next two encounters losing in the last two minutes to Central 48-35, and winning a thriller from Arthur Eddy, 33-32.

South, gaining experience as the season progressed, picked up two more wins against North, 57-38 and 54-26. They dropped two more to Webber, the eventual champion, by the scores of 51-43 and 47-34. South eked out a 47-46 victory over Central behind Frank Sigourney's 14 points. This was followed with a 33-19 win over Eddy.

Tom Rousseau was the Junior's top scorer with 83 markers and Frank Sigourney snared 54 rebounds, tops for the team.



Mark Maidlow manuevers in to mesh two against North.



JUNIORS

Junior Tankers First, Seniors Third

The junior swimmers finished the season with an undefeated dual meet record of four victories and no defeats, and a first place finish in the City Junior High Meet.

The juniors were led by Ralph Byron throughout the season, who was the only double winner in the city meet taking the 50-yard butterfly and the 75-yard freestyle. Craige Stevenson, who won the 50-yard breaststroke, was South's other first place winner. The juniors also captured both relay events.

The seniors finished the season with a record of two victories and two defeats, and a third place finish in the City Junior High Meet. The bright spot in the city meet for the seniors was the 200-yard freestyle relay. Bob Pierson, Dennis Gookin, Jim Albers, and Bill Burch combined with a time of 2:00.9 for the victory.

First row, left to right: Dennis Gookin, Jim Albers, Kim Levinsohn, Mike Bennett, Randy Jarrard, and Larry Norris. Second row: Tom Gustafson, Dave Williams, Don Shark, Rick Franz, Tom Gudritz, and Bob Kelly. Third row: Mr. Guy, Tom Burt, Gary Cook, Bob Pierson, Bill Burch, and Coach Paul Schaefer. Not in picture: Bob Hughes, Randy Russell.

First row: D. Schrems, J. Oeming, D. McMullin, B. Hollingsworth, J. Webber, C. Ducharme, B. Cox, J. Paas, J. Black.
Second row: Maurice Guy— Principal, C. Bateman, S. Kelly, G. Herzler, M. McCormick, R. Russell, F. Sigourney, L. Engel, D. Hart, P. Makrianis, Paul Keene— Coach.
Third row: M. Keaner, K. Levinsohn, Manager, B. Sherman, T. Novak, T. Hill, T. Rousseau, R. Royal, J. Schneller, R. Stockford, C. Heidebrink.

Baseball Team Strong

The spring of 1965 has brought much rain and muddy playing conditions to interfere with the city junior high baseball schedule. Now, as the SIS Boom goes to press, South's athletes have only been able to play two games.

In the first contest, South lost 9-7 to Webber just as they have lost the first contest in all other sports throughout the year. Despite a few first game errors, South showed promise, with John Black belting a home run.

Knowing that the Central game was a must win, South bounced back and beat the cross-town rivals 15-10. Most of the runs were a direct result of walks from the many Central pitchers.

Now, with the first games over, South has an excellent chance to take the championship. Coach Keene feels sure that if his ball club can settle down and play the baseball they are capable of playing, the championship will remain at South for another season.

SIS
SNOOPER

The school year's over and we're glad it's through,
Our greatest dream has finally come true.

Now as the school year draws to an end,
Summer vacation creeps 'round the bend.

Old Jack Frost was blowing our way,
No school at South for two whole days.

The Spectacular is something we missed this year,
But it will be back, so don't you fear.

Both boys and girls sport long hair,
Being able to see boy's eyebrows is really rare.

The pierced ear look came to South School,
So most of the girls wear earrings to be cool.

Penny loafers came back in style,
Let's hope they stay in for quite awhile.

"You can't win them all" was this year's new phrase,
Even though the players deserve some praise.

The volleyball team has lost at last,
This is a big change from the past.

In '65 the Kingsmen made the scene,
With the Jolly Green Giant, a cat that's real mean.

Jerry and The Pacemakers did it again,
"Ferry Cross the Mersey" was in the top ten.

The Beatles are slipping, they're about gone,
It's an improvement we've needed for long.

Here's a couple that's something new,
It's Randy Jarrard and his girl Sue.

Patty and Bob have earned a line,
They've been together for a real long time.

Here's a movie of which we're all fond,
In "Goldfinger" our hero was agent James Bond.

President Johnson was elected to stay,
He went in with a big hurray.

Wing-tip shoes are the new fad,
The best place to get'um is from your dad.

The 9A Banquet has come at last,
9th graders anticipate a fun filled blast.

The Seniors made this year their best,
It was filled with fun, work, and all the rest.

We better quit or we'll run out of rhyme,
So it's Auf Wiedersehen until next time.
